INDORSED BY THE CENTRAL LABOR UNION.

ALSO BY THE BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL.

That the Kentucky Irish American is steadily growing in favor with its readers and usefulness to the public is evidenced by the action of the Central Labor Union and the Building Trades Council in giving it their indorsement, which is the more welcome and appreciated because unsolicited and unexpected. The publisher is grateful, and will endeavor to merit this additional recognition. Our friends will be pleased to learn that the proposition favoring the indorsement was unanimously adopted by the delegates of both bodies. The preamble and resolutions adopted by the Central Labor Union are as follows:

Whereas, Many misstatements have recently appeared in the press of this city relative to the Central Labor Union and organizations represented therein; and Whereas, The Kentucky Irish American has always been a consistent and unbiased champion of the trades union movement; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Central Labor Union indorse said Kentucky Irish American as the official newspaper of this body.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this organization and all affiliated unions be communicated to the public through the columns of the aforesaid paper.

SENSATION

Caused by a Request to Organize a Local Horseshoers' Union.

President Gompers Called Upon to Decide the Appeal Before Him.

The Labor Day Committee Preparing a Surprise For This Year.

NEW UNIONS WILL BE ORGANIZED

There was a very good attendance at the meeting of the Central Labor Union last Sunday afternoon when President James McGill called that body to order, notwithstanding the fact that many were absent entertaining friends who were in the city as delegates to the Democratic convention and others wanted to see Louisville administrator two defeats to the Washington ball team.

After the approval of the minutes of the preceding meeting the credentials of William Snow, representing the Pavers' and Ramblers' Union, were received and the delegate admitted.

Quite a sensation was caused by the reading of a communication from J. Thomas Griffin, of Chicago, who is one of the organizers of the Journeymen Horseshoers' International Union, requesting President McGill to endeavor to organize a local union of journeymen horseshoers. There has been a horseshoers' union here for some years, but whether this request is made because of its affiliation with the newly formed opposing central body is not yet known. Their international officers when here in convention recently expressed themselves as regretting the differences existing in Louisville, and the foregoing may be a step with the purpose of uniting the two bodies.

Some time ago it was rumored that certain parties would endeavor to form a rival organization to one of the local unions here and would apply to the American Federation of Labor for a charter. This information was forwarded to the Federation headquarters at Washington, which brought a communication from Secretary Frank Morrison stating that all applications for local unions would be rejected unless accompanied by the indorsement of the Central Labor Union.

Some months ago the United Trades and Labor Assembly made an appeal to President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, asking his recognition of that body. This was objected to by the Central Labor Union. Up to the present Mr. Gompers has taken no action other than to assure the older and larger organization that the laws of the Federation would be strictly adhered to. This would seem to indicate that his ruling will be against those who have withdrawn from the Central Labor Union. As he has had ample time to give the matter the necessary consideration a resolution was adopted requesting him to decide the appeal at once, which many hope will result in an amicable adjustment of the differences between the two bodies.

The Labor Day Committee reported that it was completing arrangements for the fitting observation of the great labor holiday, and intimated that the announcement of its final action would prove an agreeable surprise to the workmen of Louisville. Chairman James Martin and his associates were authorized to make all the necessary arrangements for the celebration of the event, which will be the first Monday in September.

Delegate John Fuchs tendered the delegates and trades unionists of the city an invitation to participate in the parade and anniversary celebration of the Brewers' Union, which takes place at Lion Garden tomorrow. The invitation was accepted. Requests were received calling for the services of the Organization Committee, and two more unions will shortly be added to the roster.

After the transaction of other unimportant business the meeting adjourned for another month, unless called together sooner by Chairman Walter Young, of the Board of Directors, or the Labor Day Committee.

As we go to press we are informed that the Labor Day Committee has chartered all the excursion boats and will celebrate the day with a grand outing at Fern Grove. This will afford the ladies and children an opportunity to celebrate also.

IRELAND IN ENGLAND.

Catholics Are Loyal to Their Country and Diligent in Working to Save Souls.

Archbishop Ireland arrived in London last Sunday morning. The Archbishop is said to have made the following statement of the position of the Catholic church in this country:

"If by Americanism is understood loyal adhesion on the part of American Catholics to the political condition of their country and its constitution and laws, then Americanism surely exists among them.

"American Catholics proclaim no thesis which might be applicable to other nations or other times. They take what exists in their own country. They are satisfied that this is for them the best that could be in the circumstances of their country, and are absolutely, unhesitatingly loyal to those conditions.

"Nor in this positive, unreserved cohesion do they believe they offend in the least any principle or dogma of the Holy Catholic church.

"If, again, by Americanism we are to understand a sincere desire to turn to the profit of the church conditions which modern times and the peculiar circumstances of our country create, then Americanism of this kind can be imputed to us. We in America lose no time in theorizing over possible but not existing situations, nor in dreaming of the conditions in past ages. We do the work that is before us. Souls are to be saved. The church has to be planted to keep in the soil. We use the means that are at hand.

"We adapt ourselves in our methods to our surroundings, and in all this we are always most careful never to violate Catholic principles, never to sacrifice Catholic dogma, never to weaken the bonds of Catholic unity.

"If, finally, by Americanism we mean activity in religious work and personal initiative which leaves no stone unturned seeking success, while always governed in what we do by the superior direction of the Pope and Bishops, then there is among us an Americanism.

"Among American Catholics there is no folding of the arms, no saying that nothing can be done. There is no proclamation that anti-Catholic forces hold the field, and that we have nothing to do but retire, wearied and sour, into obscure nooks and corners. We work because we believe virtue and truth have within them the power to conquer. If one method does not succeed, we take up another. If the other fails, we take up another. Yet we do our best. Then, and only then, we leave the result to God's providence.

"So there is an Americanism in America to which we adhere, and there is an Americanism spoken of in Paris of which we know nothing, but repudiate it as an insult to our country."

SCHOONER BLESSED.

Bishop Healy Christened the Anna Murray Last Saturday.

With the ceremony that consecrated the carvels of Columbus a four-masted schooner, the Anna Murray, was launched at Camden, Maine, last Saturday.

Bishop Healy, of Portland, was the celebrant. His purple vestments, the golden crook, the white and gold of the altar boys, incense and plain chant, made solemn and beautiful the commonplace shipyard.

Visitors from towns miles and miles away made a somber background for the religious procession. It passed between two hedges of reverent men and women. The Bishop marked the vessel with christening oils, as if he were anointing the forehead of a child. He spoke the ritual of baptism, and acolytes made the responses. There were recited the Pater Noster, the Credo and the Ave Maria. The ocean was the baptismal font. The grave dignity of the sprinkling of holy water while the vessel, released from its bonds, slipped out of the dry dock evoked admiration.

The ceremony was performed at the request of the owners of the Anna Murray—Timothy Murray, John B. Manning and Capt. Birdsall, of New York. The vessel is of 3,000 tons and is 210 feet long. It is to be used in trade between New York and the West Indies. Capt. Birdsall is in command.

PRETTY EMBLEM

Awarded President John Hennessy For His Good Work.

The semi-monthly meeting of Division 4 of the Ancient Order of Hibernians Wednesday evening was a rousing one, and notwithstanding the increased initiation fee additional applications for membership were received.

After the initiation of three new members, William Dulaney, Edward Rafferty and John Burke, the announcement was made that President John Hennessy was the winner of the gold badge offered the member procuring the greatest number of applications, and Harry Brady and Jerry Hallihan were appointed a committee to make the selection, which will most likely be presented to the popular presiding officer on the occasion of the picnic of the division, July 24.

Harry Brady, Chairman of the committee having charge of the contracts, reported the engagement of Morbach and Scally's bands for the picnic to be given at Lion Garden Monday, July 24, and now only the minor details remain to be arranged for the entertainment of Limerick and the balance of the city.

The installation of officers will occur at the next meeting, when all should make an effort to be present and see the handsome insignia of office displayed. After the regular order of business all were invited to remain and partake of the hospitality of Will Dulaney, when a most enjoyable social session was held, songs being sung by William Reilly and John Naughton. The host related his experience in the Indiana gas belt, followed by a song that caused peals of laughter. Two hours were thus pleasantly spent and the new member voted a prince of good fellows.

PICNIC SUNDAY.

The fifth anniversary of the Brewer's Union will be celebrated tomorrow at Lion Garden, and the committees assure those who attend a good time. The members of the union will meet at Beck's Hall, where they will be joined by a number of invited guests, and with two bands of music will parade through the principal streets before going to the park. President John Fuchs will be in charge and will have the assistance of every member. They want this anniversary celebration to surpass those heretofore given.

DR. MEDER'S NEW QUARTERS.

Take advantage of the low rates and spend Sunday with friends in the gas belt. Tickets on sale at city ticket office, 218 Fourth avenue.

SURE DEATH.

Mrs. Cobwigger—I'm afraid something has happened Freddie. I haven't seen anything of him this morning.
Cobwigger—Nonsense! He's only having a good time with his firecrackers.
Mrs. Cobwigger—No, he isn't. I could not let him have such things. I bought him one of those harmless toy pistols.
Cobwigger—Run, woman, and get me my hat. I guess he's down at the morgue before this.

EXCHANGE OF COURTESIES.
